at 1600 on Wednesday 29 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Thursday unsettled with rain then showers, these frequent in west.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry, clear and chilly at first. Rain and strong southerly winds reaching West Coast early tonight, extending eastwards later. Rain becoming heavy for a time over south and west Scotland.

Thursday:
Rain clearing eastwards during the morning but lingering over Shetland for afternoon. This leave a showery day with outbreaks frequent in the west, while Northeast sees best of brighter spells.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Areas of low pressure passing close to Scotland, so an unsettled few days. Showers or longer spells of rain, some heavy and windy at times too, especially on Sunday.
